

Andrej Žiarovský, MBA (*1971)

Member of the Board of Directors since 1 May 2014

Director of the Implementation section since 1 May 2014

Andrej Žiarovský graduated from the faculty of mechanical engineering of the Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava, Slovakia, specialization thermal power, and he got his MBA degree at the Prague International Business School. He started his career in aviation and logistics. He served as the technical director of Air Slovakia and the director of the aircraft maintenance division in LET Kunovice. He served as the director of the civil aviation section at the Ministry of Transport, Postal Services and Telecommunications of the Slovak Republic. He has worked in the energy sector since 2003. He held the posts of Executive Director in Alstom Power Slovakia and Sales Director in Alstom Power Service for the Czech and Slovak Republics. Before joining ČEZ he worked for Enel – Slovenské elektrárne. He has been with the ČEZ Group since January 2008.

In 2009 – 2014 he was a member of the Board of Directors of ČEZ Bohunice a.s. He was a member of the nuclear energy society Jadrová energetická spoločnosť Slovenska, a. s. from 31 December 2009 to 13 December 2013.